

Including WINiT In Your Estate Plan

Bequests and other testamentary gifts by generous supporters can be a significant source of financial support for the organization. The continuation and expansion of this tradition of remembrance will contribute to the future financial strength and continued excellence of WINiT.

A gift to the organization through your estate plan qualifies you as a member of WINiT Legacy Partners, created to recognize and thank Donors whose foresight is building the future of WINiT.

You can make a specific gift to WINiT in the form of cash, securities, real estate or other property through your will, codicil or trust instrument. You can also designate WINiT as the beneficiary of all or part of the remainder of your estate or trust after the payment of estate-related expenses, other bequests, or following the death of a spouse or other primary beneficiaries.

Another way to include WINiT in your estate plan is to name the organization as a beneficiary of your retirement plan or life insurance policy. A bequest or trust provision for the benefit of WINiT may qualify your estate for an estate tax charitable deduction.

Sample testamentary language:

"I give (dollars) or (a specific asset, such as securities, real estate or other property) or (all) or (percent of the rest, residue, and remainder of my estate) to the WINiT organization (for its general purposes) or (for the following purpose):"

While unrestricted gifts allow the organization to allocate funds to areas of greatest need, you may designate your bequest for a particular purpose or use by a specific event, program or activity at WINiT. In order to ensure that the evolving educational needs of future generations of members are met, it is advisable to include the following language with restricted gifts:

"In the event that at some future time due to changed circumstances, in the judgment of the WINiT organization, it becomes impractical to apply my bequest to the designated purpose(s), the WINiT organization shall make such modifications as will appropriately recognize my interests in coordination with the WINiT organization priorities."

If you wish to document your request at this time, we encourage you to speak with your attorney and complete the form on page two (2) of this document.
